

Caregiver's Calling

*The demand is great.
The workers are few.
But this is my calling
-----To care for you.*

*You were once young;
You were once vibrant
You have a story;
So I will be silent.*

*Through pictures or words
You share your life,
Bringing moments of joy
In a season of strife.*

*As we talk and we share
And I meet your needs,
I pray asking God
For one more good deed.*

*How can I bless you?
How can I love?
By showing compassion
That comes from above.
- Christine Brisco*

We celebrate your compassion, attention to detail, gentleness, joy, patience, going the extra mile, and your presence with your senior who needs your encouragement and presence as they navigate aging, combat aloneness, & prepare for eternity.

Koinonia Senior Care

Caregiver's Calling

*The demand is great.
The workers are few.
But this is my calling
-----To care for you.*

*You were once young;
You were once vibrant
You have a story;
So I will be silent.*

*Through pictures or words
You share your life,
Bringing moments of joy
In a season of strife.*

*As we talk and we share
And I meet your needs,
I pray asking God
For one more good deed.*

*How can I bless you?
How can I love?
By showing compassion
That comes from above.
- Christine Brisco*

We celebrate your compassion, attention to detail, gentleness, joy, patience, going the extra mile, and your presence with your senior who needs your encouragement and presence as they navigate aging, combat aloneness, & prepare for eternity.

Koinonia Senior Care

Caregiver's Calling

*The demand is great.
The workers are few.
But this is my calling
-----To care for you.*

*You were once young;
You were once vibrant
You have a story;
So I will be silent.*

*Through pictures or words
You share your life,
Bringing moments of joy
In a season of strife.*

*As we talk and we share
And I meet your needs,
I pray asking God
For one more good deed.*

*How can I bless you?
How can I love?
By showing compassion
That comes from above.
- Christine Brisco*

We celebrate your compassion, attention to detail, gentleness, joy, patience, going the extra mile, and your presence with your senior who needs your encouragement and presence as they navigate aging, combat aloneness, & prepare for eternity.

Koinonia Senior Care

Caregiver's Calling

*The demand is great.
The workers are few.
But this is my calling
-----To care for you.*

*You were once young;
You were once vibrant
You have a story;
So I will be silent.*

*Through pictures or words
You share your life,
Bringing moments of joy
In a season of strife.*

*As we talk and we share
And I meet your needs,
I pray asking God
For one more good deed.*

*How can I bless you?
How can I love?
By showing compassion
That comes from above.
- Christine Brisco*

We celebrate your compassion, attention to detail, gentleness, joy, patience, going the extra mile, and your presence with your senior who needs your encouragement and presence as they navigate aging, combat aloneness, & prepare for eternity.

Koinonia Senior Care