

Words from Basketball Legend, John Wooden

UCLA's legendary coach, John Wooden, left his imprint on many hearts, on and off the court, with the young and with the old. When interviewed by Athletes in Action, he shared a poem he had penned earlier for an elderly group. You can watch him share his poem at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LtNeoJk0el8>

The years have left their imprint on my hands and on my face.
Erect no longer is my walk and slower is my pace.
But there is no fear within my heart because I'm growing old.
I only wish I had more time to better serve my Lord.

When I've gone to Him in prayer, He's brought me inner peace.
And soon my cares and troubles and other worries cease.
He's helped me in so many ways. He's never let me down.
Why should I fear the future when soon I could be near His crown.

Though I know down here my time is short. There is endless time up there.
And He will forgive and keep me 'ever in His loving care.
This crown on earth they soon forget the heroes of the past.
They cheer like mad until you fall and that's how long you last.

BUT GOD, He never does forget and in His Hall of Fame
By just believing in His Son, inscribed you'll find your name.
I tell you, friends, I would not trade my name however small.
Inscribed up there, beyond the stars, in that Celestial Hall.

For any famous name on earth or glory that they share,
I'd rather be an unknown here and have my name up there. - John Wooden
