Did you know that there is a Hershey's Kisses Milk Chocolate Presidential Keepsake candy, given out exclusively by the president and his staff to presidential guests at the White House, Air Force One, Camp David, and the presidential box at the Kennedy Center? Bonus: Who was president when Hershey's originated? I'll tell you at the end of the letter! For this month we honor those who have served as President of the United States with a few of their quotes.

"A house divided against itself cannot stand." Abraham Lincoln (Matthew 12:25)

"If wrinkles must be written on our brow, let them not be written on our heart. The spirit should never grow old." —James Garfield (1881)

"I can imagine no greater disservice to the country than to establish a system of censorship that would deny to the people of a free republic like our own their indisputable right to criticize their own public officials." – Woodrow Wilson (1913-1921)

"Being a politician is a poor profession. Being a public servant is a noble one." – Herbert Hoover

"Do what you can, with what you have, where you are." —Theodore Roosevelt (1901–1909)

"No person was ever honored for what he received. Honor has been the reward for what he gave." —Calvin Coolidge (1923–1929) (Acts 20:35)

"The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." —Franklin D. Roosevelt (1933–1945)

"What counts is not necessarily the size of the dog in the fight—it's the size of the fight in the dog." —Dwight D. Eisenhower (1953–1961)

"Nobody cares how much you know, until they know how much you care." —Theodore Roosevelt (1901–1909) He was also President when Hershey kisses were created.
